

Redeemer, My Healer, Lord Almighty

Stalie Grant - Your Great Name

| Cap    | 00 3                         |                    |                         |                    |                   |                |   |     |
|--------|------------------------------|--------------------|-------------------------|--------------------|-------------------|----------------|---|-----|
| Intr   | o: Em C G D                  |                    |                         |                    |                   |                |   |     |
|        | Em                           | С                  | G                       | _                  | D                 |                |   |     |
| Los    | t are saved; fiEm | nd their way; at   | the sound oG | f your grea        | t nameD       |                |   |     |
| All d  | condemned; fo                | eel no shame, at   | the sound               | of your grea       | at name           |                |   |     |
| _      | Em                           | C                  | G                       |                    | D                 |                |   |     |
| Eve    | ry fear; has nEm         | o place; at the s  | ound of youG | r great nan        | neD           |                |   |     |
| The    |                              | as to leave; at th |                         | vour great         | _                 |                |   |     |
|        | ,                            |                    |                         | your groun         |                   |                |   |     |
|        |                              | _                  |                         |                    | _                 |                |   |     |
| C      | G D                          | Em                 | Cac clain for I     | G D                | Em                |                |   |     |
| Jes    | C C                          | the Lamb that wa   |                         | us, son or (D  | 300 and ManEn | n C            | G | D   |
| You    | _                            | lifted up; and all |                         | _                  |                   |                | J |     |
|        | 3                            | 1 /                |                         | , ,                | J                 |                |   |     |
|        | _                            |                    |                         |                    |                   |                |   |     |
| Λ II + | Em                           | their strength; a  | Gt the sound        | of your are        | Dvat namo     |                |   |     |
| All t  | Em                           | C                  | G G                     | or your gre        | D                 |                |   |     |
| Hur    | gry souls; red               | ceive grace; at th | e sound of              | your great         | name              |                |   |     |
|        | Em                           | C                  |                         | G                  | D                 | )              |   |     |
| The    |                              | ney find their res | t; at the sou           | nd of your         | great name        |                |   |     |
| Sick   | Em                           | and the dead are   | Ca raisod: at t     | Gho sound (    | of your groat i   | D              |   |     |
| Sicr   | t ale liealeu, i             | and the dead are   | raiseu, at i            | ine sound (        | or your great     | lallie         |   |     |
|        |                              |                    |                         |                    |                   |                |   |     |
| C      |                              | Em                 |                         | G D                | Em                |                |   |     |
| Jes    | _                            | the Lamb that wa   |                         | _                  |                   |                |   |     |
| Vau    | Care high and            | G En               |                         | Dvill projecty | C                 | • -            | С | G D |
| 1 00   | are mgn and                  | lifted up; and al  | THE WORLD W             | ılı praise y       | our great nam     | I C |   |     |
|        |                              |                    |                         |                    |                   |                |   |     |
| D      | Em                           | C Er               | n                       |                    |                   |                |   |     |

